Single male professional seeking a roommate or the right shared apartment/house situation. I work full-time downtown, I'm not a late-night partying kind of person and I have no problems paying rent or bills on time. I am also a dedicated musician and compose chilled out, down-tempo music in my spare time. (primarily using headphones) I stay very busy but I am an extremely laid back person. I commute to work downtown and am putting money away for a new set of wheels, so ideally I am looking for someplace where I can commute relatively easily. I'm looking for something by the beginning of April and would like to stay between $500 and $600 a month. Me as a roommate = quiet, clean, respectful, has money, genuinely.
