Hi, this is a last minute post, but I didn't want to have to spend the whole 14 hours driving...

I'm leaving tomorrow morning Friday, March 21 at 8AM from the SLC area. I'm hoping to drive non-stop (food, pitstops of course) to Portland/Eugene. My final destination is Eugene, but will be driving through Portland.

No gas reimbursement requested, just someone to share the driving duties.

I'm a super nice, well-traveled guy driving out west to help my daughter move for her first job out of college.

Let me know and I'll get back to you ASAP.
