I'm starting a new project looking to take the local scene by storm. As of right now I have a killer lead guitarist who has agreed on taking on this project with me. I need some solid musicians to build this band into a local juggernaut. Some of my influences include but not limited to: Born of Osiris, Winds of Plauge, Chelsea Grin, Whitechappel, Death, etc. I really want to make something of this project so if you aren't serious about making music don't waste my or your time. Age Is Not a big deal. We are in our 20s. Would prefeere People Over 18. If you are ready to make some killer music and go on tours and actually make something out of a band thenow you should contact me. Thank you for.
