I am a single mother and have an 8-month old son and am looking for free childcare for 4 weeks until I start making money from my new job. I work from home but I cannot have any noise in the background at all. Feamles only who love children and someone who is retired or older and done with the partying lifestyle and someone who is Christian. I am looking for someone who is safe and doesn't have tons of people coming in and out of their house. I am not looking for a person who does drugs or is an alcoholic. I can pay maximum $50 every two weeks for childcare after 4 weeks. I am really a struggling mother and just need help. I am looking for someone who lives around Alta Vista Rd. Please get back to me if you can do this. I need something right away or at least by the 30th of.
