Casting New TV Show on TLC Network - PAID

We're specifically looking for a story where someone has a family member involved in some interesting/weird/fun business, but whose significant other is completely unaware of it.

Essentially, we're looking for couples who haven't yet met their significant other's families. We want to fly the couple out to do this with our cameras present in the hopes of capturing fun, quirky reveals about their partner's family (it can really be anything!). Of course in addition to the trips home, we will also compensate the couple ($2,000) and pay a finders fee for a great referral. Also, we're happy to feature related businesses.

Do you have a child (or a nephew or a niece) who's dating or even engaged to someone that has no idea that you are involved in some subculture or hobby (from golf to fire juggling)?

Are you dating or engaged to someone who has NO idea that you used to do (fill in the blank)?

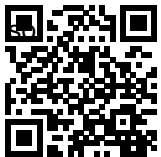

It can be as simple as have a huge Star Wars collection or as involved as you used to be a beauty pageant queen. We're just looking for great visuals and a surprise reveal.

This is a fun show that hopes to bring some comedy to getting to know your partner's family and their history a little better. The entire shoot would take place over one weekend. It's also important to point out that this episode won't actually air. This is simply a pilot show for internal network use.

If this sounds like something you'd be interested in, please email me and tell me WHY this could be a great fit for you. Don't forget to include a contact #.
