I'm a professional screenwriter with eighteen years experience. Originally from Los Angeles, now in Eureka Springs. I've written twenty-five features, six TV pilots and eight shorts. My films have played festivals and won awards, I have a series in development at a premium cable network and, my latest script was just optioned. I've written thrillers, dramas, comedies, fantasies, horror films and more, so no matter what you come to me with -- a book, treatment, outline, or just that great idea you have in your head, I can help bring your dream to fruition.

What I offer:

Script development: I give you notes on your finished draft, then either you or I do the revisions.

Screenwriting: I can work with you to develop and plot your story, then I'll write the screenplay. I can also develop and write a script based on a book you've written.

Television writing: I can help you develop your drama or sitcom, then either help you write it, or write it myself.

Mentoring: I'll guide you through the step-by-step process of writing a screenplay.

So why hire me?

Like I said above, my work has been produced. I've won awards. I'm not some kid just out of film school. I'm a full-time screenwriter. I've read hundreds of scripts. Know tons of people in the film industry and have producers interested in my work. And I'm a nice person. Fun to work with, with a great work ethic.

So what are my rates?

No two people are alike. My rates are based on how much work I'll be doing. After we talk, I'll give you an estimate. But trust me, it's quite reasonable.

No drop in price, let's get started!

Isn't it time to start living your dream?
