If you been considering a fresh coat of paint on you're home sweet home than think no more. I have over thirty years in the painting and home improving trades I can quote you an approximate price over the phone and give you references numbers to. So you can actually talk to a previous client of mine and check my qualifications. I don't ask for any cash in advance. That's not the way I do business. I always try to earn my clients trust. The quality of my work is top notch in all the trades. Call Berto
