need this ride bad already way late
I am looking for a ride from Denver to my place in Fort Garland, CO. for me and my dog

I am an artist and sell my jewelry which is all made from local unique, beautiful Stones, Amber and Semi Precious Stones in the summer months, at the crossroads.

This enables me to spend my fall months collecting beautiful stone throughout the local mountains.

I do not possess an automobile and could not drive even if I did.
I don't have a lot of cash at the beginning of the season but can help with gas also have many things of value for trading, jewelry some electronics that I'm not using any more, Nice Stuff! Also I am really Chill and laid back. for20 friendly.

you will be more than welcome to chill at my place for an hour or 2 or 3 after we get there. Always looking for a cool new folks!

Trip itself is 214 miles from central Denver it's a beautiful drive through the mountains as well as 60 bucks or less in gasoline roundtrip if u drive a truck or van lot less for big car would preferr someone with a van or SUV obviously as I need to take some boxes and jewelry small setup stuff for my stand, down to my place

Really hope to meet some cool new people!!!

looking forward to a mutually beneficial chillship slash friendship
