We have a solid white altered male cat that has been missing for about two days. He is very handsome and friendly but not very bright. For instance he likes to play with the neighborhood fox and licks wet paint. He is super affectionate and has a pronounced leonine head. He is a fierce hunter and whenever he catches anything he runs it right into the kitchen for you.

We live just south of Hampden and Tower and offer a $50 reward for any help in finding him.

Thank you for your.
