Before you list your animal as free to good home, please look at the following message. This is what could happen to your pet.

"Jason Brown, of Reno, Nevada, is accused of adopting dogs in order to torture and dismember them. He is being charged with seven felony counts of willfully torturing and killing an animal and two counts of possession of methamphetamine. If convicted on all counts, he could receive more than 20 years behind bars."

"Found in Brown's motel room were bloody knives and scissors, dog limbs, dog skins (including that of a newborn puppy), four dog heads in the refrigerator, and the decapitated body of a dog in the bathtub. Two of these dogs, Chihuahua mixes named Fernell and McGee, were given to Brown by a woman who was only trying to find them a new home. Brown is believed to have adopted the other dogs through."
