Are you looking to start your child in a setting that will prepare them for Kindergarten, or a center that will allow your two year old to build social skills by working with others?

Going Places Learning Center is a licensed play-based center that allows children to explore their world through hands-on activities and an exciting curriculum. During the day, preschool students participate in morning circle, engage in calendar conversations, and rotate through stations that are centered around a theme. The children also get plenty of time for fresh air in our large play yard, where teachers often facilitate cooperative physical activities.

In addition to our wonderful curriculum and staff, we also provide a healthy breakfast and snack for our students. Children are only required to bring a lunch.

Going Places Learning Center is open from 6:45am-5:30pm, providing parents plenty of time for commuting to and from jobs and other obligations. If you are interested in enrolling your child, call We look forward to hearing from you!
