I've posted on here plenty, either the person responding flakes out or I do. None the less, I'd like to get a band going. I've played guitar since I was 8. I'm 33 now, and I need to do something before I get grey and start considering end of life options. I would prefer to do something "heavy" in nature. Not pigeon holed into any particular genre, but loud, noisy, distortion, yelling, etc. I've got good gear, practice space options, and a crap load of studio gear that will be arriving soon. I also know a few people in the local scene, they won't commit to a project cause they are all in other bands already but they can help. I also played in a regionally touring band for over 10 years. I write a lot in compound meter, so you may have to do some learning if you never played in anything besides 4/4. Mathcore type stuff, as much as I hate that term. Age doesn't really matter but I'd pry be a good idea you're drinking age.

Influences: Converge, Neurosis, Russian Circles, Dillinger Escape Plan, Coalesce, Ion Dissonance, High on Fire, Botch, Mastodon, METZ, Liars, Ken Mode, Torche anything I ever liked! Favorite local bands: Northless, Enabler, Protestant. If you don't know these bands then check it out.

Email or text,

If you can do this, we should start a band
