If you're thinking about bankruptcy you need a real advocate. A document preparer will help you fill out the forms to get your bankruptcy started. But then what? What if you didn't even need to file bankruptcy? Or you needed a Chapter 13 instead of Chapter 7?

A bankruptcy attorney can not only help you navigate these decisions, but can help do the bulk of the legal work for you. A good bankruptcy attorney will stand up for you and look out for you throughout the process instead of just filling out some forms and feeding you to the wolves.

If you're thinking about bankruptcy call Cohen Counsel today at You'll be glad you did.
