Our Mission

Passion Academy is a School for the Arts that trains, equips and mobilizes people of all ages who want to excel in music, dance and art disciplines in a unique music-based environment that will build a leadership discipline that will sustain people when challenges may leave. We are given the opportunity to receive weekly coaching and education in the following disciplines: instrumentation, vocals, sound engineering, media technologies, dance and art expression.

Our community of students experience teaching from world-class artists while building essential leadership disciplines.
