

Baby Rats to Good Homes (Scottsdale)

Location Arizona

My female rat had six babies about three weeks ago, and they are approaching the age at which they need to be separated and weaned. I'm 95% certain that four of the six are males, and I cannot keep anymore males, so I'm looking to adopt them out to good homes.

Right now they're very rambunctious and still a little skittish, but they just need to be worked with a little longer to become accommodated to people handling them, which I will do up until they are adopted.

I'd prefer to adopt them out together, but I can adopt them out individually if you are joining them with another rat.

Individual baby is $5, and a pair is $10. Please contact if you're looking to adopt the males.
