Hello students,

I am currently a College Coach who gives private lessons assisting students in college preparation and awareness. As a full-time Admissions Counselor at Western New England University I read over 600 applications a year. I know exactly what a college essay and recommendation letters need to look like in order to attract College Admissions Counselors. I also work closely with Financial Aid in order to educate parents and students on how to financially plan for College.

I hope to assist future College students in preparing for a great College experience. Please contact me if you are.
