If you or your loved one are retired, disabled or too busy professionally to shop and run personal errands, I'd gladly help out with the tasks.

I am conscientious, detail oriented and have over 15 years of experience in elderly care, money management, and housekeeping. Home office help also available.

I will help you find the best prices and available deals out there, and deliver the services and your items in perfect condition and specified timing.

Please initiate contact via Craigslist originally and let me know what needs you may have, and I'd be delighted to price the tasks. Hoping for a long term and synergistic.
