I am a stay at home mom. I have 4 kids that home-school and my husband is a student. We usually live off of student loans throughout the year. This means that money is tight all the time. Recently was talking to my neighbor who is amazing a trading stocks. I told him that I would give anything to have just a portion of what he gets paid. Then he told me that I could because he does a "Trade With Me" service in the morning.

All I had to do was get my own trading account and follow his instructions on when to get in and out of a trade. That sounded easy to me. My husband was upset that we would be spending more money then budgeted buy knew that our neighbor was really good at stocks so I went ahead and got started. Every morning for an hour I got on and did the trades as instructed, but was late on some of the entries. The first month I made my money back plus some. I knew I could make more with Kirk next month. I did much better at entering trades on time the second month and doubled my money. I don't know enough about trading to do it myself so the only money I make is when I trade in the mornings with Kirk. Now my husband is so excited about what I am doing that he is going to start coaching with Kirk next month part time so he can finish school too.

Until he graduates from college and trading I will continue to do the Trade With Me service with Kirk.

I absolutely love it because not only are my bill paid for 6 months in advance but I am also able to buy nice thing for myself. We even have a Christmas savings account so that we can do Christmas in Hawaii this year. I cannot wait until I can trade every morning with Kirk and watch my account go.
