I'm looking for a cute female for a quick modeling gig. I'm usually very busy, but this weekend I decided I'd like to pull out the camera for a little practice. Would you like to be my practice subject?

The shoot will be fun, light-hearted, and shot in a private location. You should be comfortable in your own skin, because I'm going for a boudoir type of feel (non-nude, the picture above is a good example). If you are a very modest person, this probably wouldn't be the type of shoot for you, although, you can remain anonymous (faceless) if you want. I'm willing to work with you on ideas.

Please email a few pictures - I'd like to see at least 1 full body picture. Pay will be negotiable, so if you're looking for quick cash, this will be a good opportunity to get some money on the spot.

I'm a young (late twenties), fit, professional guy. This is just a hobby of mine. Email for more;)
