I have a male and one female Yorkie baby.
 Those great quality baby's come with Vaccination, 1 Year health Warranty some food, instructions on how to take care of them properly and a coupon for your first Vet visit free. Also each have there own blanket and toy and you will get some puppy food for your baby that will last you a couple days so you can get some later and spend more time with your new family member :-).
 Those baby's including there mom and dad are very well taken care of and expect the same of you to do so ! A Yorkie has monthly grooming costs because there hair that grows fast and long including good food so before buying one think about it because each of my baby's cost me $60 each month for grooming, Teeth brushed and all. Female is $750 and male is $600. The price is set, as you can see they come with lots of things including 1 year Health warranty so you can rest assured your baby is.
