The Anchorage Weekend Market is seeking bands, musicians, and performers for our 2015 season (May -- September). The market supports local Anchorage music by offering a great stage to perform in a beautiful setting for a gracious crowd. Whether you are a beginning performer (or a new band) seeking live performance experience, or an established band/pro looking to share your music with a grateful audience, we truly hope to hear from you!

Financial compensation is not offered but there is a tip jar and performers are welcome to sell CDs or merchandise during sets. Performance slots fill up fast. Please reply to this email or call Cam at to.
