Bright Start has one opening

Hello, my name is Deborah and I am so excited to share my in home preschool program with you and your child. My goal in creating Bright Start is to offer a joyful, nurturing, safe, and individualized preschool program.

A little about myself, I am a mother of two girls. I have taught preschool for 6 years and I have a 20 year background working with children in various settings including public & private preschools, a Montessori school and therapeutic clinics. My education includes a Master's degree in Psychology as well as courses in Early Childhood Education. I have worked with children with developmental disabilities and have basic sign language training. As a licensed provider, I am First Aid / CPR certified & Medication Administration certified.

Bright Start offers. . .

*developmentally appropriate Theme Based Preschool Curriculum, supporting learning in the areas of: language/literacy, math, science, cognitive growth, fine and gross motor development and social/emotional growth

* daily Group Activities including: arts & crafts, cooking/baking, science experiments, music & movement, morning exercise, relaxation yoga and of course lots of story time !

* weekly Outings to the library, nature center, zoo, museum, and parks as well as field trips based on current theme of study

* large, fenced backyard with play set, sand box and play house

* healthy, homemade meals including: Breakfast, Lunch and Snacks

* flexible schedule accommodating children and families who work and have to teach

* also offer a part time preschool program on Wednesdays, Mon -- 4:00 pm, before drop off beginning at 6:00 am
