

Missing TabbyMaine Coon Cat (Manchester)

A year ago today my cat Rocky escaped. He ran out of the front door before my boyfriend was able to stop him. He was living outside for months before we found him, so even though he's been gone for a long time we know that he could still be out there.

He was lost at the Pavilions apartments near the Buckland Hills mall, but he could really be anywhere at this point. An easy way to tell it's him is that he can't meow; He just makes a funny crackling noise. He is microchipped, so if found we can confirm that he's ours.

If you've seen him at any point, please send me an email with any details you.
