Feeling stressed or anxious?

Researchers at Florida State University have developed a 45-minute treatment that is scientifically proven to reduce negative effects associated with stress and anxiety. This treatment is now being offered online for FREE, in order to test how helpful it is when completed at home via the Internet. If you would like to complete the treatment, we ask that you fill out some brief questions before and after. Your feedback is greatly appreciated.

Please EMAIL for the link to begin the treatment!

NOTE: You must be above the age of 18 to participate.
