Technology Sales Specialist (Part-time) (White Marsh, MD)

We are currently seeking part-time employees to represent a leading (Fortune 500) technology manufacturer of laptops, desktops, and printers.

This position will involve being trained on client products and working on-site at retail locations in your area as a technology product specialist. This position's schedule is mainly weekend hours which are 12pm-5pm on Saturdays and Sundays, and involves assisting customers in locating the appropriate technology products for their needs.

There are 3-5 flexible hours worked during the week to provide basic technology product training to retail associates. We look for outgoing and self-motivated individuals with sales or marketing experience and an aptitude to learn technology. This is a really fun job for the right person.
