Sitting on the water's edge in West Bath, this Maine cottage has the tranquility of the tall pines around it on it's east and the sunlit views of life on the water from its wall of windows to the west. The cheerful sunny eating area overlooking the water has magnificent sunset views in the evening. Owned by a potter and an architect, its original 1920's charm has wisely been left in tact, updated and modernized simply for comfort and filled with their personal treasures. It is a delight to the eye.

With its own private dock, swimming, kayaking, canoeing and any type of water sport is possible. Boat rental is very nearby. Just a 10 minute ride gets one to either Bath or Brunswick offering farmer's markets, movies, many restaurants and shopping possibilities. A 5 minute drive provides a paper and milk. It is incredibly peaceful and quiet without being inaccessible. Renters have written books on its porch, painted pictures, just relaxed. Ideal for a couple or small family with a child.
