Not you're average referee we suppose. Sexy couple have challenged each other to a contest and want an impartial referee. The contest involves him....spanking her....and if she can make it 5 minutes without giving in she wins...if she gives in within the 5 minutes, he wins... Each has prize at stake. Part of the fun is that the referee will watch her in a state of undress spanked by him, etc. Here's a sample of the rules:

The contest will consist of Mark spanking Traci for a period up to five minutes. Spanking is an omnibus term used in this instance for Mark striking Traci's buttocks with either his left hand or an approved and agreed upon instrument such as a hairbrush, for a pre-determined number of strikes. "T" hands will be bound behind her back, and will also be tied at the knees and ankles, which will be bound together. She will also be gagged with an approved combination of her own underwear / socks and on overlay of tape. Should "T" indicate she submits by the agreed upon tap-out, "M" will immediately cease the spanking for 30 seconds. Once the 30 respite is over, and spanking commences, any additional "tapping-out" by "T" prior to the 5 minute spanking clock elapsing will be considered a forfeiture, and "M" will be declared the winner. If there is no second submission, once the 5 minute clock expires "T" is declared the winner.
