I've got a one bedroom apartment that will be vacant this week. It's got hardwood flooring, tile in the bathrooms, along with a ceiling fan in the living room. The kitchen comes equipped with brand new energy efficient black appliances. Plus there's a lot of space on the counter tops for you and your guests. I'm a new comer to Craigslist, so message me for more info. Depending on your needs, I'll decide upon a lease length with you in mind. Most pets are allowed. I'll schedule you for a tour.
