Franchise Ball :::: The Free Baseball Simulation Game

Ever wanted to run your own sports franchise? Franchise Ball is just a step away from the real feeling of controlling your own baseball business.

Earn money and deal players. Work with your farm system to build organizational talent, establish reputations in divisional and league competition. Franchise Ball offers the experience of strategy and real time baseball management.

The game is tailored towards the casual gamer, and highly extensible to the more involved player!

Franchise Ball is completely free now. It was launched as a subscriber only game about a year ago, but we decided to open it to all. We still need beta testers for the game as many new features are on the way! We are looking for players and testers for the suggestion new features as well! We strive to involve EVERYBODY in the process of developing this innovative new game. Thank you.
