

LQQKING for Arm Candy (overland park ks)

Location Kansas

I am looking to establish an on-going relationship with a very honest, well grounded, intelligent, and kind young woman, between the ages of 21 and 31, who needs someone to help cover their living expenses, in order to comfortably pursue their professional goals. Preferably, you should be able to host occasionally (not a requirement - just a preference). Physically, you are slender, very fit, very attractive, feminine, passionate, and totally disease and drug free. Race and/or ethnicity is unimportant to me. I am white, college educated, physically fit, athletic build, dark hair and eyes, 5' 11" 180lbs

For example, you may be a student, an aspiring actress or model, someone starting their own business, etc.

It's very important to me (and you) that we have some mental connection and chemistry between us.

I am only looking for someone who is totally a "non-pro." This may potentially be the first time, you've considered an arrangement like this. But, this should be a situation that you've given some thought to and are comfortable doing with the "right man" and under the right circumstances.

I am especially generous and kind hearted. I have no desire to lower your self esteem. Hopefully, we can have a relationship that is uplifting for both of us.

If you think we may be a good fit for each other, please e-mail me a detailed description of yourself, your ideal arrangement, whether you can host, and the part of Greater Kansas City.

I would love to see some photos of you and give me a picture of your place. Please include a physical description of you (height, weight, dress and hair) and treasure items. I assure you that I will be discreet and protective of both your pictures and your e-mails.

While I am not looking for an "e-mail relationship," I would hope to exchange a couple e-mails in order for both of us to get a sense of a potential fit. When we can meet for coffee and take things from there.

Thanks so much for taking the time to read my ad.
