The Lofts at 1041 Ursulines are where you can say you've arrived. This is where you can enjoy modern features and finishes set against a rich, historic backdrop and where you can maximize your valuable time with a location that's convenient to work and play. Originally built in the 1840s, and in the former location of Puglia's grocery store, the preserved history is evident throughout each of the unique one- or two-bedroom residences. If you're seeking an exclusive and private French Quarter address, look no further than the Lofts at 1041 Ursulines.
