Market values are finally on the upswing in our valley, and buyers are looking for homes. With the holidays upon us, current inventory for homes is low. If you are thinking of selling your property, give me a call for a FREE HOME VALUE report. I will be happy to come to your home and meet with you and evaluate the resale value. You will also be given suggestions on staging and repairs along with a full consultation! With 16 years experience in the residential mortgage and sales market, you can have trust and faith that I will be honest with your personalized report. Call me if you are serious, or just considering a move within the next 6 months for your FREE evaluation! Appointments are open through March.
