A volunteer writes: It's tempting to write that Shakespeare is poetry in motion but he's such a goofball he's more like a limerick in action. What an adorable, high energy, playful guy! He appears housetrained, is mostly really great on a leash, and is so good-natured that even when a little dog came at him growling and trying to chew on his leg he just wagged his tail and kept on walking. Shakespeare will add so much fun, affection, and love to a family or individual who can match his energy-or at least take him to the dog run. What a happy life Shakespeare is about to have thanks to you. . .we just know it!
