The NJ Titans beep baseball team is looking for individuals that are interested in volunteering to assist the team members during practices and games. Practice is usually held on Saturday afternoons between 1:30 PM and 5:00 PM, and travel games are scheduled in advance. Volunteers assist the team members onto and off of the field, provide visual indications to where the ball is hit, and perform other game-related tasks as needed.

If you like softball or baseball, and you would like to become involved in a community event, please contact us by responding to this email with your name and phone number that you can be reached at. Blind or visually impaired individuals interested in playing on the team can also reply to this email with contact information to receive more information about this sport or contact Amy at the number.
