Summary;

32 year single father of two (1 f/t 1 p/t)

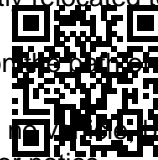

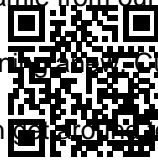

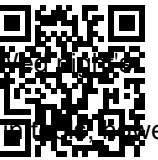

Recently relocated to Laramie from our home town of ft Collins.

I am only a few weeks beginning school. Currently taking a few GED classes 2 night Tue and Thurs some

I have no vehicle but can get to school just fine. I like with a truck attached. I am looking for a job however I am not a borrower must be specific more so with prior notice.

Because I am new to Laramie and without family or friends, resources are limited to weekly child care only. Therefore I will have one or on occasion both of my 7 year olds while working. This is nothing new to me or them. I value being able to teach my children necessary life skills and independence. They are very good little helpers and are well disciplined. Moreover I do have consent/release forms dissolving my customers of any and ALL liability.

In addition I have completed parenting classes and graduated from a very good program called "parent and child interaction therapy. I have 1st aid certification in first aid, cpr, defib. Though it is out of date, I intend to renew it.

My kids are wonderful children, they listen to their parents. I only mention all this because I understand concern potential customers have.

Ref's upon request. Please call and leave a msg if I don't answer or reply to this add and I will be prompt in my response.

Thank you for your interest and I look forward to hearing from.
