Looking for fun, interactive, educational and progress based drum lessons for yourself or your kids? You've find the right guy! I live in Charlotte, NC and play with the southern rock outfit Carolina Reign. Although I live in Charlotte I am able to conduct drum lessons via Skype and to my surprise this has worked out great! I love being able to continue teaching while on the road. It is extremely fun and I love actually getting to meet students sometimes when I play in their city/area.

$25 for 30 minute lessons, $35 for hour lessons. Kids and adults welcome, ages 5 and up!

- 11 years playing percussion and drum set, able to teach certain hand percussion as well
- High School drumline captain, studied with former DCI (Drum Core International) Crossmen Snare player and former Cavaliers tenor player as well as Army band snare player
- Alumni member of Western Carolina University Marching band (the 2014 Macy's Thanksgiving Day featured band)
- Performed in concert with WCU Marching Band and Keith Urban
- currently studying with former student of Rick Dior (Rick has performed with Aretha Franklin and many other great artists)
- Ability to teach snare drum and drum set music notation as well as cover all standard rudiments and hybrid rudiments
- Lessons range from beginner to advanced beginner
