hello

"Fashion League productions " is a new upcoming fashion company who is looking to add a set and prop designer to there business. they are looking for someone who is passionate about set/prop design on fashion photoshoots and fashion videos to give shoots that extra pop with scenery. The set decorator/designer , often someone with experience and passion in interior decoration, finds, shops, selecting props, furniture, decorative items for the sets such as furniture, knick-knacks and rugs etc... any props and furniture to make the concept we are shooting come to life for magazine publication submission (knowledge of light building/construction would be a plus) . fashion league productions has alot of projects going on and don't not have the time or passion for the set setup and layout of the shoots.

some shoots are trading services with the team your name will be credited in magazines as the team set designer and any paid work the team business gets you will be given a fee aswell. you will have part ownership of the team business . below is a link to our page you can send a message there or email and also read our page bio to get a understanding of our business. please send over head-shot and resume and any photos of your work as set design and prop building . thanks
