Our little Damian is still lost. He is about 8 to 10 pounds white little had short hair but he's a maltese so it can get long and shaggy if not trimmed. He went missing New Years Eve or early New Years Day. we have look everywhere. We are pretty sure he was stolen but we say lost and hope that he's found. He had a little multi colored collar on at the time he went missing. He is potty trained he's already neutered or fixed. He does not have a chip my fault. But he is very sweet, he is a service dog for my mother so please if you see him think you see him or just anything near please call. We miss him so much we need him back my mother needs him....
