This stunning apartment has 2 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, and enough room to comfortably accommodate up to 6 guests throughout 900 square feet of stylishly appointed living space. As soon as you first step through the unit's front door, you'll immediately feel at home - contemporary decor, upscale furnishings, and an abundance of glorious natural light through the several large windows make the interior feel open and inviting, creating a truly aesthetically pleasing atmosphere for your vacation. All the amenities you need to be as relaxed as possible during your stay are here, including air conditioning, wireless internet access, in-unit washer and dryer, flat screen TV with cable for your entertainment, and a sleek fully equipped kitchen, complete with all the essential cooking appliances.

Look forward to spending your downtime unwinding on the unit's private balcony, where you can admire fantastic views of the Pacific Ocean that are practically guaranteed to take your breath away! When you're not at the beach or out sightseeing, take advantage of the great amenities available for guest use within the apartment complex, which include an on-site gym and community swimming pool with grill.

You can't beat this apartment's incredible location - not only will you be just a quick stroll away from the beach, you'll also be within walking distance of restaurants, convenience stores, the Aquarium of the Pacific, Long Beach Art Museum, and the convention center. This property is also within close proximity of fishing, sailing, Catalina Island, and the historic RMS Queen Mary Ship, a retired ocean liner that today offers a one-of-a-kind Long Beach experience. Regardless of how you plan to spend your time during your stay, this outstanding Long Beach vacation rental apartment will not disappoint!
