Birch Bark Art - Genuine mounted as seen in Jordon Pond House in Acadia National Park in Maine. Smaller sister pieces are on displayed in Fairfax, VA. Delivered by the artist himself from Otis, Maine the week of November 30, 2014.

From the deep woods of Maine near Acadia National Park, an Artist has brought the outdoors in. As seen in the Jordon Pond House, Birch Bark has been mounted for a fabulous display of the natural wonder in this three dimensional sculpture. Designed for the home, office or club, these framed pieces display the natural essence of the woods. A couple have woodpecker nitches, others have raised curly bark. All were chosen for their distinct personality.

Asking $850 each.
 The one sculpture / picture on the left in the picture has sold.

This art is already on display in a Private Estate, and these sister pieces are now available. The exact 4 that are available are in the attached picture. The frames are made of 5/4 reclaimed lumber. The sizes are as follows:

10.5" x 40.5"
 20" x 32.75"
 21.5" x 33"

As seen in the farthest left picture, the picture has sold.
 The artist has already signed each piece, you will gladly be surprised for your own artist signed certificate will accompany each piece.

A Wonderful, calming treasure to any great room, office, waiting area, kitchen, foyer, den, or display location of your choice. For home, office, camp, lake house, vacation property, Wintergreen Resort, Massanutten home, etc.

All mounting has been expertly crafted to ensure a lifetime of enjoyment.
