Thanks for reading! My name is Alex. I am screening stories to be told kind of like moth stories to be blasted out to thousands of people on the internet for my upcoming show. A little bit about the show it will entail a daily show of amazing stories with TRUE stories that happened to them and every day of the week it will be a different theme.

The submission can be about anything you would like to share. It must be a TRUE story and personal to you. Whether it involves humor, heartbreak, love, triumphs, or anything you have been through that might help someone else in a similar situation just to know they aren't alone in their situation.

Please share.

If you have a story that you would like to share please email me by replying to this ad.

I will respond to every email as long as it is not a bot or spam within 7 days from submission. I am going through some already but the more the merrier.

The show airs in one month from today so please hurry I want to get them all in.
