Hello, I am needing to re-home my 1 year old male hedgehog. He just isn't getting the attention he deserves at my parents home as I am away in college. He will come with his plastic tube, wheel, igloo, and the remainder of his food and bedding. He has become timid from the lack of attention so he will need to go to someone who has some knowledge about hedgehogs and is willing to work with him. He loves strawberries and other fresh fruit! If interested please email me! Asking a rehoming fee of $100 (The supplies alone cost well over 70$).!
