I have purebred American Blues and American Blue/New Zealand White mixes. I have age ranges from 4 weeks up to breeding age. American Blues are always grey. The mixes have pure white, black and white, and a brownish color. Prices start at $20 for the babies and go up depending on age, sex and breed. All of these rabbits will be 10 to 12 lbs when grown and put off excellent sized litters. Message me and let me know what you're looking for. Thanks, Rich
