If you have a paper to write and are worried about your grade, I can help. I am a certified English and Spanish teacher with an M.A. in Creative Writing. I have taught writing to students of all ages, from kindergarten to college. Many of my students have gone on to teach English and become writers themselves.

What do you need? I offer a variety of services, depending on your needs and skill level. (Note: I do NOT write papers for students. If you want to cheat, find someone dishonest to help you.)

Proofreading: $1 per page to correct grammar, spelling, and punctuation.

Proofreading Plus: $1.25 per page to proofread as above, plus light re-writing for clarity and better word choice as required. Think of this as smoothing out your awkward sentences and pumping up your vocabulary.

Conferencing: $2 per page for Proofreading Plus services as above, plus additional comments to help you organize your ideas, clarify your main points, and add supporting detail.

Revising: $3 per page for Proofreading Plus services as above, plus my personal revisions. This is like conferencing, but instead of just making suggestions, I'll make the changes for you. (This service may not be appropriate for middle school and high school students.)

Works Cited Add-On: I will check your works cited formatting (MLA style only) for $1 more for papers less than 5 pages, $2 more for papers with 6+ pages. This service includes a proofreading of the works cited page as well as checking formatting of in-text citations.

For help with Spanish writing assignments, add an additional $.50 to each service above.

Turn-around time is 24 hours. If you need something done faster, add a rush charge. If you need overnight service, add a $10 charge to the total.

To get started, email me a rough draft of your paper. My name is used in service of you. I will email you back to confirm your order and deadline. Once you receive a confirmation invoice, I accept payment by Paypal, and will begin work as soon as the full payment is in my account.
