Any potential hair models in the Orlando area? Women's studies photographer and beauty author is looking for a young fresh faced model with petite features and lovely face for a series of before and after pictures cutting her hair from long to pixie short at an area salon. Pay is commensurate with experience, look I need and willingness and dimension of change in my model. You will receive cash at your desired rate and copies of the head shots for your portfolio. Email a pic of current hair and face and I will get back to you to discuss details if I like your potential.

Visiting this week only so respond right!
