

DJ ASSISTANT FOR WEDDINGEVENT GIGS

Location Massachusetts
<https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-375498-z>

I'm a busy wedding/event DJ based out of the North Shore but traveling to Boston, the South Shore, New Hampshire, Southern Maine, etc. and need help. I work mostly every Saturday (and some Friday's and Sunday's) doing weddings, Sweet 16's, and various other private and corporate events.

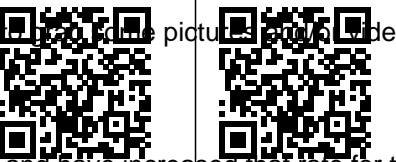

I'm looking for an assistant and NOT other DJs

:: Duties ::

- ? Unloading, loading, setting up, and breaking down DJ equipment
- ? Taking requests and interacting with guests
- ? Various other responsibilities as needed

:: Requirements ::

- ? A basic understanding of music and DJ equipment preferred
- ? A passion for music, DJing, and/or the entrainment industry is preferred
- ? The ability to work with people, basic customer service skills, and common sense required
- ? Be able to lift upwards of 100 pounds
- ? Have a valid driver's license and reliable transportation although you're welcome to travel with me to and from events
- ? Professional/business attire a must. I wear a suit to most events and you would just need to have dress pants, dress shirt and tie, and dark and/or dress shoes.
- ? Please be punctual, presentable, and patient.

I would be happy to find someone with some previous experience and/or a picture and/or video at the event.

Saturday availability is a must. Some Friday and Sunday events as well ::

I typically offer a flat rate of pay which I'm happy to discuss with the right candidate and have increased that rate for those with whom I've continued to work over the years. I also share tips whenever possible and dinner is usually provided by the venue.

If interested, please send a brief description of yourself (background, interests, etc) including why you'd be a good fit. A picture goes a long way, too. Be sure to include contact information and your
