I am looking for a nanny that is able to start on May 4th. I have 4 kids ages 7, 5, 4, and 16 months. The hours are Monday - Friday 7:30am to 5pm. There will be occasional days off due to my husbands work schedule (right now he has been getting Fridays off). We do have an extra van available for you to use so that field trips with the kids will be possible. The older kids are pretty self sufficient and pretty much live outdoors during the summer. The little one loves it outside too so we need someone that is comfortable being outdoors with them as much as possible. The older kids are in school until the first part of June so for about a month you would only have them about an hour a day. Please contact me to set up an interview. Pay would be around $300 per week but could be negotiable for the right person. Also I am open to you bringing your own children with as.
