Location Indiana

If you are pregnant and could use some extra cash this could be perfect. I am looking for a pregnant woman who would be comfortable with art nude style shoots. Your face could be turned away or cropped so no one knows it is you if that would make you more comfortable.

Any stage of pregnancy is fine but ideally I would like to shoot throughout your term to capture how the body changes. The images will be entered into next years Kinsey Institute juried art show.

Each session lasts around an hour and is paid cash the day of the shoot. Again, preference will be given to a candidate who will be available for multiple shoots and that can start soon. (It doesn't matter if you are not showing yet).

Pay is $100 per session

To be considered please reply with:
your name
your age how far along you are do you need to hide your identity when topless or nude 3-5 pictures of yourself that clearly show your body
