I purchased this Macbook Air in November 2014, it has been used for approximately 3 months as my work computer. It is in excellent condition and I have never had an issue with it. Unfortunately, I no longer need the computer due to a job change.

Included are the original materials: box, accessories, and instructions. I am checking to see if I can find the original purchase receipt from Best Buy. I will include a MAC to PC adapter (~$40 value). I have an extra power cord that I will include for $25 if interested.

Price is $675 firm and must pay in cash.
