I have a 2 year old cat we need to re-home. Her name is Rosemary Jade (aka Rose or Rosie), and she answers to her name. She is lovely, independent, but loves attention when she wants it. And will cuddle when it is convenient for her. She has lived with dogs all of her life, and is used to bigger dogs, but prefers them to leave her be when she has had enough. She hides from newer animals for a while. She does have territorial issues with the smaller dogs, but as long as they stay away from her, she is fine. My husband and I both work long days, and she does fine all day inside.

She does like to sneak outside, but we just got her fixed so that is no longer an issue for her. She has had two healthy litters of kittens (both had 4 kittens), and one litter of six that did not make it. We think the dad and her didn't mix well, and her body rejected the kittens. But she is up to date on shots, will be needing booster soon though.

She will come with her litter box (It is a breeze and comes with special litter - we have extra pads & an extra bag of litter that is used by the brand of litter box), automatic feeder, a full bag of Special Kitty cat food as well as another bag of cat food that is mostly full.

We would like to get her into a new home asap. We live in Mtn. Home, but are willing to meet up to a certain distance.

Please contact by email, if you are seriously interested. Thank.
